FRATERNAL VISIT.—By special invitation Washington and Jackson Lodges of Masons of this city last night paid a fraternal visit to Lafayette Lodge of Washington. The Alon the 7.05 train and were met at the depot in Washington by a delegation from Lafay ette Lodge. They were there presented with silk badges and marched to the Masonic Temple where the work of "raising" three candidates to the degree of Master Mason was exemplified in the most impressive manner by Worshipful Master Merrill, of Lafsyette Lodge. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, the visitors were escorted to Edel's Hall, where a bountiful repast was served, and of which about two hundred partook, after which toasts were appropriately and happily responded to, among the speakers being Messrs. A. W. Armstrorg. F. A. Reed, E. E. Downham, K. Kemper and others from this city. The evening was delightfully spent and the Alexandrians returned by special train, leaving Washing ton about 1 o'clock. They were escorted back to the depot by Lafayette Lodge.
